TIPS

The Hermosa Beach Police Department is looking for the community's help in solving crimes and identifying suspects/suspicious people. If you have a video surveillance system which may have captured video of a crime or suspicious subject on your property, please contact Detective Sergeant Jaime Ramirez at 310-318-0330, or forward your video to Detectives@hermosapolice.org. Please include an address when submitting the video so that we can identify the location of the incident.

The Police Department also encourages community members to register the location of their home or business surveillance camera(s) through the CrimeReports.com Camera Registration Program. The information you provide is kept safe and secure and never made public. For more information, and a link to register your cameras, please use the following link: https://legacy.crimereports.com/camera\_registration#/

If you see something, say something. Report suspicious activity right away by calling the non-emergency dispatch line at 310-524-2750. Be sure to add this number to your contacts or speed dial. In the case of an emergency, dial 9-1-1.
