The 2015 Greater Los Angeles Homeless Count took place on January 27-29th, 2015; it is the largest homeless census in the country.

These results cover the Greater Los Angeles Continuum of Care, which includes all of LA County except the cities of Long Beach, Pasadena, and Glendale.

41,174 total # of persons
Homelessness has increased by 16% since 2013

Homelessness by Household Type

- 81% Single Adults
- 18% Family Members
- 1% Unaccompanied Children

Homelessness by Subpopulation

- 62 & Older
- 55-61
- 25-54
- 18-24
- Under 18

Despite the increase in the overall population, homelessness among veterans has remained relatively flat since 2013.
Service Planning Areas (SPAs)

LA Continuum of Care totals only; does not include data from Long Beach, Pasadena, and Glendale.

The number of homeless persons in the City of Los Angeles has increased by 12% since 2013.